Suite 1400
Philadelphia, PA 19102

Ellie Morrison is an Associate whose practice focuses on insurance defense litigation. She has experience conducting legal research, preparing detailed memoranda on complex legal issues, assisting attorneys throughout various stages of litigation, and supporting trial preparation through the drafting and editing of motions. Her background also includes legal research and analysis involving complex litigation and product liability matters, as well as assisting with deposition preparation and document review.

Ellie earned her Juris Doctor from Temple University Beasley School of Law, where she maintained a strong academic record. She received her Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Bryant University, graduating with a 3.97 GPA and earning Dean's List and President's List honors.

Outside of her legal experience, Ellie has a strong athletic background. She competed as a Division I field hockey player in college and has coached athletes at both the youth and high school levels. Her experience as both an athlete and coach reflects the discipline, teamwork, and commitment she brings to her professional work.
