MINTZER SAROWITZ ZERIS & WILLIS PLLC
We're more than a defense firm.

William A. Healy IV
Senior Associate

Long Island, NY Office:
60 Broadhollow Rd.
Melville, NY 11747

William A. Healy IV is a Senior Associate based in the firm's Melville, New York office. His practice focuses on complex civil litigation, including commercial disputes, construction litigation, labor law matters, premises liability, motor vehicle claims, and general liability defense. He represents clients throughout all stages of litigation, from case evaluation and discovery through mediation, arbitration, and trial preparation.

William is known for his strategic approach to litigation and his ability to guide clients through complex legal challenges. He has extensive experience drafting and arguing dispositive and procedural motions, conducting and defending depositions, managing case strategy, and advising clients on risk assessment, exposure analysis, and resolution planning. He also works closely with clients to align litigation strategies with their broader business objectives.

In addition to his litigation practice, William is actively involved in the intersection of law and technology. He has developed and led educational initiatives focused on the responsible integration of artificial intelligence into legal practice, including attorney training programs, certification frameworks, and practical applications designed to enhance legal services and professional development.

William earned his Juris Doctor from St. John's University School of Law in 2020 and received his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from The George Washington University. He is admitted to practice in New York, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, and the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York.

Committed to providing practical, results-driven representation, William combines strong advocacy, innovative thinking, and a client-focused approach to help achieve successful outcomes for individuals and businesses facing complex legal matters.
