

Joseph Glace

Senior Associate

Southern Florida Office:

1000 N.W. 57th Court
Suite 300
Miami, FL 33126

Joseph Glace was born and raised in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He obtained his undergraduate degree from Pennsylvania State University in Education and Spanish. He went on to graduate from the Florida International University College of Law where he received book awards in Legal Skills and Writing, and Trial Advocacy. Mr. Glace also served as the president of Moot Court and won the Georgetown Law White Collar Criminal Mock Trial competition. During law school, Mr. Glace served as a law clerk for the Honorable Frank A. Shepherd of the Third District Court of Appeal.

Mr. Glace began his legal career at a nationwide insurance defense firm practicing in the areas of automobile negligence, premises liability, and construction law. Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Glace practiced at a boutique Miami law firm specializing in insurance disputes, first-party property claims, and complex commercial litigation. Mr. Glace is a keen advocate for his clients, currently representing defendants in personal injury matters involving transportation law and premises liability. In his spare time Mr. Glace enjoys golf, travelling with his wife, and is an avid Philadelphia sports fan.

Practice Areas

- Construction Law
- Premises Liability
- Professional Services
- Restaurant, Retail & Hospitality
- Transportation

Education

- J.D., Florida International University, 2013
- B.A., Pennsylvania State University, 2009