I am admitted to practice law in Florida and New York State, as well as federally in the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York. My background includes involvement in both criminal and civil practice spanning the private, government, and non-profit sectors. I have tried cases to verdict in New York Criminal and State Supreme Court as well as in Miami-Dade County.

Outside of work I enjoy community building activities emphasizing the power youth and children in local neighborhoods. I also enjoy spending time with family and friends.
