Associate

Southern Florida Office:

1000 N.W. 57th Court
Suite 300
Miami, FL 33126

Connor Milo is a native Floridian having been born and raised in Jacksonville, FL. He tried his first case for Mintzer Sarowitz the day after he was sworn in to the Florida Bar and obtained a directed verdict in favor of his client.

Connor attended the University of Florida Levin College of Law where he was chosen to be a member of the Florida Trial Team. Together with his partner, he won the 2018 statewide Florida Bar Chester Bedell Mock Trial Competition. He received his undergraduate education at Florida State University where he obtained a Bachelor of Science in Business Management and Professional Sales. While at Florida State, Connor worked as a student assistant to the defensive coordinator for the Seminoles' 2012-2013 Atlantic Coast Conference championship football team that went on to win the Orange Bowl.

Connor is involved with the Young Lawyers division of his local Bar Association. In his free time, he is an avid sports enthusiast and Jacksonville Jaguars football fan.
