John D. Lemonick brings 35 years of diverse legal experience, on both sides of the Bar, to MSZL&M. John served as Law Clerk to the late Honorable Albert R. Subers on the Montgomery County Court of Common Pleas, and thereafter worked as senior counsel with a variety of prominent defense litigation and staff counsel firms. More recently, before joining MSZL&M, John worked as an associate attorney in the prosecution of Plaintiff's personal injury actions.

John prides himself on being a compassionate, outstanding communicator; and focuses on reducing complicated legal issues and concepts to their more easily understandable common elements, so his clients can make intelligent decisions about the most prudent course of action in litigation. He continually works to bring his client and adversaries together to achieve mutual understanding on issues, to enhance efficiency and increase the chances of bringing closure to matters. His goal in every case is to establish a close working rapport with his clients, establish a realistic, prudent plan and effectively posture matters to achieve a desired result.

John attended The William Penn Charter School in Philadelphia and Trinity College in Hartford, Connecticut, where he played football. He lives with his wife, Karen Cohen in Bryn Mawr, PA. His passions are alpine skiing and bird watching; he is a member of the Delaware Valley Ornithological Club.
