Kristia Hoffman was admitted to the Florida Bar in 2023 after graduating magna cum laude from Florida International University College of Law. While in law school, Kristia was an editor for FIU Law Review and a winning member of the FIU Moot Court team. She interned for judges in the Florida First District Court of Appeal as well as the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida. She also served in FIU's Community Lawyering Clinic.

Before attending law school, Kristia earned her undergraduate degree at the University of Florida and her master's degree at Trinity College Dublin. She worked as an English language teacher and advisor to international students. In her free time, she enjoys spending time with her family, relaxing at the beach, swimming, and running.
