Melissa M. Mudry has been practicing law in New Jersey for five years. She is a strong advocate for continuously communicating with her clients throughout the litigation process. She believes that constant communication allows her to better represent her clients by understanding their unique goals and concerns.

Ms. Mudry is a fan of early morning visits to the gym. She is always trying new food and enjoys visiting the Pocono Mountains for bonfires, quiet time and the good company of family and friends.

An Ohio native, Ms. Mudry currently resides in Norristown, Pennsylvania. She is married and has a dog and cat.
