During law school participated in veteran's law clinic and interned with the Chester County District Attorney's Office. Became an Assistant District Attorney out of law school where she ran the intern program and was a member of the forfeiture unit. She moved into civil litigation with MacMain, Connell & Leinhauser, LLC defending 1983 claims, municipal liability and employment law actions. Briefly, worked independently in breach of contract defense before joining Mintzer.

Samantha resides in Chester County, enjoys backpacking with her dogs Enzo, Lucci, and Maggie, relaxing at the beach, horseback riding, and adventures of any kind.
